

Calling All Nature Writers!

Lewis and Clark National Historical Park 2011 Youth Nature Writing Contest

“Trees in the Forest”

All High school students in Oregon or Washington are eligible.

Top three essays win cash!

Prizes!

First:$100

Second:$75

Prizes!

Third: $25

In 500 words, describe the importance of forests.

Winning authors will be published on the Lewis and Clark NHP website.

Don't delay; start composing your essay now! Deadline is March 31. The literary judge is Robin Cody, author of numerous award winning books.

To find out the details about how to enter: go to www.nps.gov/lewi and click onto “Youth Nature Writing Contest.” You can also call (503) 861-2471, ext. 220 or Google: “Youth Nature Writing Contest”